AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 28th of May 1752.

PRESENT,

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council.

WHEREAS it hath been repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices at this Board, That Colin Campbell of Glenure, who had been appointed by the Court of Exchequer in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to be the Factor or Steward upon the Eſtate of Charles Steuart of Ardſhiell, lately attainted of High Treaſon, but fled from Juſtice beyond the Seas, having received Directions from the ſaid Court, to remove all the Tenants belonging to the ſaid Charles Steuart, (ſome of them his near Relations, and all of whom had been in the late Rebellion) from the Poſſeſſions they had obtained of him before the Attainder—The ſaid Colin Campbell did, upon Thurſday the 14th of this Inſtant May, proceed to execute the Decrees of the ſaid Court, taking with him a Meſſenger, (being the proper Officer for that Service) as alſo a Nephew of his own, and his Servant; and in the Way as they paſſed through a Wood on the Farm of Lattermore, in Duror in Argyllſhire, Part of the ſaid forfeited Eſtate from which the Tenants were to be removed, the ſaid Colin Campbell was, from behind a Buſh, ſhot dead on the Spot.—And whereas it is highly neceſſary that the Perſon or Perſons who committed or were concerned in the ſaid cruel and deteſtable Murder, in Violation of the Peace, and Defiance of the Laws of this Realm, ſhould be brought to ſpeedy and exemplary Puniſhment—It is hereby ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Privy Council, that all Magiſtrates and other Civil Officers whatſoever, and all other his Majeſty's Subjects, do make ſtrict and diligent Search and Enquiry after the Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Murder, and the Authors, Actors and Abettors thereof; and that they do apprehend and ſeize, or cauſe to be apprehended and ſeized, the ſaid Offenders, that they may be puniſh'd with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law.—And for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and induſtrious in their Endeavours to make ſuch Diſcovery, and for the better and more effectual bringing the Offenders to Juſtice, it is hereby further ordered, That if any Perſon or Perſons concerned therein, except the Perſon who actually ſhot the ſaid Colin Campbell, ſhall diſcover any other Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Fact, ſo as the Perſon or Perſons thus diſcovered may be apprehended and convicted thereof, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers ſhall receive his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.—And it is hereby likewiſe further ordered, That any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid heinous Offence, ſo as he or they be convicted thereof, ſhall have and receive, for every ſuch Perſon ſo convicted, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Receiver-General for Scotland, according to Directions to be given for that Purpoſe by the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, who are hereby directed to give ſuch Orders accordingly.—And all his Majeſty's loving Subjects are hereby required to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours, in their ſeveral Stations and Places, to find out, diſcover, and apprehend the Offenders as aforeſaid, upon Pain of his Majeſty's higheſt Diſpleaſure.

Petersbourg, May 13. On Saturday laſt her Imperial Majeſty's Coronation was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence; on which Occaſion Major General Hampff was promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant General, and the Brigadiers Proſorofsky, Devier, and Iſakoff, to that of Majors General. Her Imperial Majeſty alſo nominated the Baron de Samorokoff to be Maſter of the Horſe, in the Room of the late Prince Kourakin. On Tueſday laſt the Court quitted the Winter Palace, and went into the Summer Palace. Orders have been ſent to all Commanding Officers of our Troops, to cauſe all the Men to be regularly exerciſed three Times a Week till further Notice. We learn from Perſia, that Prince Heraclius ſtill continues to gain ſome Advantages over Schach Doub, but that the Report of his being in Poſſeſſion of Iſpahan is without Foundation.

Naples, May 14. Commodore Martinez, who lately ſunk a large Algerine Shebeck, has been promoted by the King to the Rank and Pay of a Colonel for his gallant Behaviour in that Action. Laſt Week he put in at Meſſina, where he landed 169 Moors to perform Quarantine, whom he had taken up from the Sea; and after having refitted his Squadron of Shebecks, and provided them with the neceſſary Proviſions, failed again on a Cruize. The Loſs the Algerines ſuſtained by the above Ship, has not hindered their appearing in great Numbers on the the Coaſts of this Kingdom, and taking ſeveral of our coaſting Veſſels, amounting, as is alledged by our Merchants, to the Value of upwards of 100000 Crowns within theſe few Weeks. The Negociation that has been carrying on for ſome Years between this Court and the States General of the United Provinces, for ſettling a Treaty of Commerce, is at length ſo far advanced, that the ſame is almoſt daily expected to be ſigned. They have already taken eleven of the eighteen Priſoners who laſt Week found Means to break out of one of the Priſons of this City, and 'tis thought by the Diſcoveries which ſome of them have already made, the reſt will ſoon be apprehended.

Rome, May 16. The Departure of the Pope for Caſtle Gandolfo, is fixed for the 25th of this Month. We have received Advice from Civita Vecchia, that the Barbary Corſairs have taken a Genoeſe Felucca, with about 50 Men on board, whom they have carried into Slavery. The ſame Letters add, that they have likewiſe taken a Catalan Pink, with 120 Recruits on board, who were going to Naples, in order to compleat the Spaniſh Regiments in his Neapolitan Majeſty's Service. They write from Macerata, a ſmall Town of the Marche of Ancona, that a Perſon having been committed to Priſon there for being concerned in the running of Goods, a large Body of Smuglers came and demanded him to be ſet at Liberty, but being refuſed, they immediately broke open the Priſon, and carried him off in Triumph, the Goaler having eſcaped being murdered with the greateſt Difficulty.

Bologne, May 16. We learn from Reggio, that the Duke of Modena, who has been there with his whole Court during the Time of the Fair, propoſed to ſet out from thence on Saturday next for Saſſuolo, in order to paſs the Summer.

Parma, May 16. The Corn brought hither from the Ferrarois and Naples, not being ſufficient to ſupply the Inhabitants with Bread till Harveſt, the Duke our Sovereign has obtained Leave of the Court of Vienna for his Subjects to purchaſe Corn in the Mantuan, where they have at preſent a greater Quantity than moſt other Countries of Italy.

Florence, May 19. On the 13th Inſtant the Empreſs's Birth day was celebrated here with the uſual Solemnity, the Foreign Miniſters, the Nobility, and Military Officers, appearing in their rich Habits; and in the Evening there was the uſual Fireworks, and the Cannon of the Caſtles were fired. On the 14th and 15th two Couriers from the Court of Naples paſſed by this City, whereof one for Parma and Madrid, and the other for Dreſden, with Notice, that on the 11th Inſtant the Queen of Naples was happily delivered of a Prince. Within theſe few Days paſt this Government has reſtored the Inquiſitor to his former Authority with regard to the Preſs, having cauſed a Notification to be given to the People concerned in it, to obtain firſt his Approbation, not only for the Printing, but alſo for the Exportation and Importation of all Books. The Emperor has lately granted 38 Commendaries of the Order of St. Stephen, to divers Knights of that Order; and amongſt them, a Commendary of 60 Crowns a Year to each of the young Gentlemen who went on board of the three Ships of War in their late Voyage to Conſtantinople, &c.

Lisbon, May 22. A Circumſtantial Account of the great Damages received laſt Month by the Inhabitants of Aveira and Buarcos, as well by Earthquakes, as by the Overflowings of the Rivers, having been laid before the King, his Majeſty was ſo affected therewith, that he not only ordered them to be ſupplied for the preſent with Corn at his own Expence, but alſo ordered that they ſhould be exempt from paying all Duties and Taxes whatſoever for ten Years. The Corſairs of Barbary have of late interrupted the Commerce of this Kingdom ſo very much, that Orders are given for the immediate equipping four Men of War, and the like Number of Frigats, in order to give them Chace. The Fleets from the Bahia and Maranham are both arrived richly laden; that from the Bahia having on board half a Million on the King's Account, beſides two Millions on the Merchants Account.

Turin, May 23. The Accounts received at Court from the Inſpectors of the Troops, as to the Appearance and Behaviour of the ſeveral Regiments they have reviewed, give great Satisfaction. The Dutcheſs of Savoy advances happily in her Pegnancy, and 'tis expected will be brought to Bed about the Beginning of July.

Venice, May 26. Early this Morning there was a violent Storm which has done a great deal of Miſchief. The Lightning fell in ſeveral Parts of this City, and has damaged the Churches of Sta Croce and St. Moiſe, the Convent of St. Andrea and Sta Margarita, and killed ſeveral People. Some private Houſes have likewiſe ſuffered, particularly the Imperial Ambaſſador's.

Berlin, May 27. On Thurſday Morning laſt the King reviewed all the Regiments, that had been drawn together for that Purpoſe, on the Plain of Templow. Moſt of the General Officers in Town, and many of the Nobility, were preſent at this Review, and were afterwards invited to dine with his Majeſty, at his own Table. The King expreſſed great Satisfaction at the Appearance and Behaviour of his Troops.

Vienna, May 27. On Wedneſday laſt their Imperial Majeſties, accompanied by the two eldeſt Archdutcheſſes, and the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, ſet out from Schonbrun for Laxembourg, in order to divert themſelves with hunting for a few Days. Count Keyſerling, the new Ruſſian Ambaſſador, is ſoon expected here, upon whoſe Arrival Count Beſtuchef will immediately depart from hence for Peterſbourg. Several conſiderable Bodies of Recruits have lately been ſent, by Way of the Danube, into Hungary, in order to complete the Regiments in Garriſon in that Kingdom. On Sunday laſt General Count Brown ſet out from hence for Bohemia, in order to take upon him the Command in Chief of the Imperial Troops in that Kingdom.

Hague, June 6. We learn from the Upper Palatinate, that an Epidemical Diſtemper had lately lately broke out at Vernberg, a ſmall Town in the Neighbourhood of Amberg, which greatly reſembled the Plague; and that a great Number of the Inhabitants of that Place had died of it in a very few Days.

Dublin, May 26.

Laſt Sunday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired in his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks.

The Maſter and Wardens of the Company of Scriveners, London, hereby give Notice to all whom it may concern, That they will meet every Wedneſday till the 24th of June next, at the Rainbow Caffeehouſe in Cornhill, by Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to admit into the Freedom of the ſaid Company, all ſuch Perſons exerciſing the Art and Myſtery of Scriveners as ſhall apply for that Purpoſe, in Purſuance of the late Act of Common Council, intituled, An Act for regulating the Company of Scriveners, London.

Adverti ſements.

IN the Beginning of laſt November, the Right Honourable the Lord Falkland, being at Montauban in France, viſited an Engliſh Gentleman there, who was thought to be expiring of a Fever, his Phyſicians and Friends being deſtitute of all Hopes of his Recovery. He had taken a great Quantity of the Bark, which, far from doing him Service, appeared to be very prejudicial to him. At this Time he rattled in the Throat, was very much delirious and inſenſible, and exceſſively hot and low. At Seven in the Morning the Lord Falkland gave him half a Paper of Dr. James's Fever Powder, which made him ſweat profuſely. Two Hours after he took another half Paper, in Conſequence of which he brought up a large Mouthful of very black Bile, had ſome Stools, and ſweated plentifully. Betwixt Twelve and One he ſat up, and ſpoke, and became ſenſible. At Three he took a whole Paper, which was repeated at proper Intervals, according to the printed Directions. In Conſequence of this he perfectly recovered from his Diſorder, and, in a few Days, regained his Strength. The Right Honourable the Lord Falkland, eſteeming this more a publick than a private Concern, has ordered it to be publiſhed for the Advantage of Mankind.
